

TERMS & CONDITIONS GIFT CARD

You may use your Guess Gift Card if you are the purchaser of the Card or if the Card is given as a gift.

You may use your Guess Gift Card to make full or part payment for goods at any Guess flagship store in Ireland (excluding concessions in department stores). For a list of participating stores, visit www.guess.eu. Your Gift Card can only be used in the country of purchase.

You may obtain information about the remaining balance on the Card at any cash register in participating stores.

When you use your Guess Gift Card, the amount of your purchase (including VAT) will be deducted from the balance on the Card when presented; any remaining balance can be used against future purchases. Your balance will not attract any interest.

Your Guess Gift Card will automatically expire 24 months after its issue, at which point your balance will be forfeited. Gift Cards presented after expiry will be treated as void.

Your Guess Gift Card cannot be exchanged for cash or re-sold. Purchased goods can be substituted according to the usual Guess policy; cash refunds are excluded.

All refunds of goods or services purchased with your Guess Gift Card will be made in accordance with the Guess refund policy. This does not affect your statutory rights. Details of this policy can be found at www.guess.eu.

Lost, stolen or damaged Cards cannot be replaced. Guess cannot accept any responsibility for your Card if it is lost, stolen or damaged.

Damaged, altered or cancelled Gift Cards will be treated as void.

Guess will cancel the value of your Gift Card if Guess fails to receive payment from the purchaser's bank or card company for the purchase of the Card.

Your Guess Gift Card shall remain the property of Guess and is not a cheque guarantee, credit or debit card.

Guess reserves the right to amend these terms and conditions from time to time, but terms and conditions cannot be changed unilaterally, if the modification would be to the disadvantage of the consumer. In this case the consumer may terminate the agreement. Moreover, Guess cannot unilaterally revoke the gift card within the term foreseen. Guess reserves the right to temporarily discontinue the card for limited periods, in case special circumstances occur, such as in case of force majeure. In the event Guess decides to discontinue the card for a limited period, the validity period of the card will be prolonged with the duration equivalent to the period of interruption.

These terms do not affect your statutory rights. Current terms and conditions will be available at all times online at www.guess.eu.
